

Making a commitment to regular financial support, helps...

- to sustain parish clergy in post serving communities like ours
- to sustain the work and mission of the church with young families and in our schools, and to care for the ill, lonely and bereaved and the elderly members of our communities
- to sustain our church building - a place of worship at the centre of the community, open for all to wander in and out, for regular services, for major festivals and community events, and for those important family occasions in our lives – baptisms, weddings and funerals
- to sustain a Christian presence to promote the values which matter to me in my local community and society

A commitment to giving on a regular basis...

- is the most effective way of ensuring a regular income for our church
- enables the Parochial Church Council to plan ahead and budget with confidence

You can give by Standing Order or Weekly Envelope...

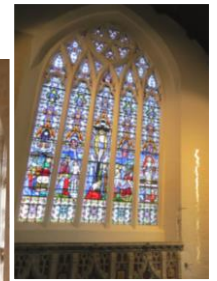

- If you already make domestic payments by standing order, using the same method to give to the church . . .
 - ✓ helps you to plan your giving as part of your normal expenditure
 - ✓ keeps your giving up to date if you cannot be in church for any reason
 - ✓ avoids the desperate last minute searches for cash to put in an envelope
- It also helps church administration by . . .
 - ✓ reducing the need to open, count and record envelopes – and keep them for six years!
 - ✓ being more secure than taking cash to the bank
 - ✓ ensuring a steady flow of income, even when you can't be in church

You can also give by leaving a tax-free legacy to Holy Trinity in your will. Please ask for further information.

THANK YOU SO MUCH!

Gift Aid allows charities to reclaim income tax of £2.50 on every gift of £10 received, whatever the amount. For our church to reclaim the tax, the donor must have paid sufficient income tax or capital gains tax in the same tax year to cover the amount to be reclaimed. All you need to do is complete the Gift Aid Declaration.

giftaid it

This declaration covers all gifts, whether cash in envelopes in the collection plate, standing orders, cheques or “one-off” gifts. Whichever way you give, the church must be able to identify you as the donor, but all records remain confidential.
