THE COLLECT:

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him: grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ, may reign with him in glory; to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might,
now and in all eternity.
Amen.

FIRST READING:

Acts 10. 34-43 NRSV

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius. 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.
You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ – he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15. 19-26

If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the first and the last, says the Lord,
and the living one;

I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

Alleluia.

THE GOSPEL READING

Luke 24. 1-12

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had accompanied Jesus came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, 'Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again. 'Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

LAST WEEK FOR CYCLONE IDAI

APPEAL – there will be a retiring collection for this Christian Aid Appeal – please do give generously for this very desperate situation. And the pop-up Community Coffee Morning on 6 April raised a fantastic £980.

TRINITY CAFÉ AT HOLY TRINITY - For people with memory problems, their carers and all who'd enjoy some good company. Next Café will be THIS THURSDAY 11am-1pm, 'Singing with Tony, Jon and Chrissie'.

VERY MANY THANKS to all who donated and supported our Lent Lunches. We raised the magnificent total of £720.20. Fantastic! Thank you so much. E.Forbes.

THE EASTER LILIES this year have been given in memory of: Bob Butler, Sallie & Elwyn Chapman, Olive & Cliff Clarke, Dorothea Heber, Jack Heber, Gerald Hodge, Patrick Squire, Leonard Stenning and John Ticehurst. We hold them in our prayers especially at this time. May they rest in peace and rise in glory.

ANNUAL REPORTS for 2018 – hard copies are now available in church, and the Report is also available on the website.

HOLY TRINITY ANNUAL MEETING

(APCM) - this will take place at 11.15am in church on Sunday, 28 April. So please do keep the date free – and also think whether you might like to become more involved in the life of your church as a PCC member, or even churchwarden? We need some new energy! Please have a word with David Milne or Joanna if you might be tempted, or would like to find out more?

COFFEE MORNING for BIBAC, supporting children and young people with brain injuries and/or developmental difficulties. THIS SATURDAY, 10am-12 noon, St James' Church Hall, Trowbridge.

'GOD AND SCIENCE' talk by Rev Prof Keith Charnley of St Nicholas church, Winsley. Drinks – 7.30pm. Talk – 8pm. Tuesday, 30 April at Winsley Primary School Hall.

TIME TO BE STILL – Sunday, 5 May, 5 - 5.45pm (approx), at United Church Hall, St Margaret's Street, BoA. Come and step aside briefly from the busyness of life. We welcome people from any church background – and from none – for a short time of stillness, in an informal setting.

FOR OUR PRAYERS

Please pray for all who are sick, remembering especially:

Ludo Brown, Margaret Charles, Matthew Cox, Ann Davies, Mary Dawson, Alan Franks, Vernon Gibbs, John Glanville, Rob Henderson, Peter Hodges, Lyn Holbrow, Malcolm Keating, Pat Kitchen, David Lavis, Peggy Leach, Muriel Metcalfe, Alison Penny, Ken Roberts, Ann Taylor, Jacqui Vincent, Paul Weymouth and Mary Wright.

Pray for all those who mourn and for those who have recently died, remembering especially: Joan Bull.

And we pray for all those whose anniversary of death falls at this time, remembering especially: Greta Wiltshire, Sally Osborne, Norma Cookson and Adrian Powell.

Please let the clergy, LPAs or any other member of the HT Pastoral Care Team know of any pastoral need – any kind of pain or loss, illness, hospitalisation, loneliness – or simply cause for prayer.
